

RUBBER STAMP REPS

Procedural Scam to Cut Taxes for the Rich

Dozens of House members represent districts where the majority of the constituents voted against this administration's platform, yet these representatives are acting as rubber stamps for the White House's extreme agenda rather than working for the people they represent.

Issue Background

The below representatives voted to open the door to move forward with massive tax cuts to millionaires, billionaires, and wealthy corporations. This vote for budget reconciliation would allow massive tax cuts for the rich to pass the Senate with only 51 votes rather than 60. These tax cuts will be paid for by slashing $5 trillion in funding for critical domestic programs over the next 10 years, including gutting Medicaid funding, repealing funding for Obamacare, and cutting Medicare by nearly half a trillion dollars. Beyond health care cuts, the budget would also eviscerate education funding—including cutting $150 billion from pell grant and nutrition assistance programs—and cut housing, job training, and other programs middle class families rely on.

Members of Congress should oppose this budget resolution because it's a procedural scam to pass tax cuts for the wealthy at the expense of critical programs that Americans rely on. Rather than wasting time trying to cut taxes for people that don't need it, Congress should help middle class families by focusing on common-sense policies like expanding job training, supporting growing industries like clean energy, raising the minimum wage, and making college more affordable.
